The Japanese left 30 killed and carried off a couple of hundred wounded. The Russians subsequently found a large number of frozen corpses of Japanese wounded who had tried to crawl off from Chenhatin pass. The appearance of these corpses was frightful. The bodies were scantily clad.

Projected through a small opera glass on a sheet of white paper a disc measuring 7 inches in diameter, was disclosed. Mathematical calculations proved that the spot on the surface of the sun was one-tenth of the total diameter, or over 80,000 miles in the widest part.

The spot is egg shaped, and can be easily discerned through a smoked glass. It is situated east of the central portion of the sun and today will be almost in the middle of the luminary. The spot will be visible for several days.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN GEORGIA.

One Man Killed and Five People, Including a Woman, Are Injured.

Eastman, Ga., Feb. 3.—As the result of a shooting affray near Rhine, Ga., in this county, late Wednesday, one man, W. P. Livingston, is dead and four other persons, M. A. Burnham, W. B. Bryant, and a young man by the name of Coffee, lie mortally wounded.

These are all prominent people of the county and have large family connections.

On account of a difficulty between W. B. Bryant and a young son of M. A. Burnham, bad blood has existed between the Burnhams and the Bryants for some days. Late Wednesday afternoon, W. B. Bryant, W. P. Livingston, a brother in law of Bryant, Mrs. Ray, a sister of Bryant, and M. A. Burnham and his son, LeRoy Burnham, were on the public road near Rhine.

A fusilade of shots immediately rang out, and when the smoke had cleared away, it was found that Livingston was dead and M. A. Burnham, Bryant and Mrs. Ray were seriously wounded.

Burnham was carried by his son to his home in Rhine, and a short while after dark Burnham, his son, LeRoy, the young man Coffee and several women and children were in a room where the wounded man was being cared for.

Suddenly a gunshot rang out on the night air, and a load of buckshot came crashing through a window of the room. This shot struck young Coffee.

Engineer and Firemen of Fast Freight Meet Death.

Atlanta, Feb. 3.—R. C. Wilhelm, engineer on the Southern railway ,and C. C. Archer, Jr., fireman, of Atlanta, were killed Wednesday morning in a head-on collison between freight trains Nos. 54 and 83, at McDonough, Ga.

Train No. 54, which is a fast freight, went into the side track at McDonough to allow No. 83 to pass. The engineer on the latter train thought he had the right of way, and sent his train speeding around the curve. He saw the red lights warning him of an open switch too late.

The lever was reversed, the whistle blew, the sand was applied, but all was in vain, and soon the two trains met.

The engine attached to No. 54 was wrecked and the engineer instantly killed. The fireman, Archer, had both legs severed from his body and died four hours afterward.

The towers at both ends were broken. The terrified cavalry horses jumed over the railings of the bridge onto the ice, which gave way. The river is narrow at that point and the men managed to scramble ashore with the assistance of witnesses of the accident.

"The circumstances of Sviatopolk-Mirsky leaving the ministry of the interior calls forth sympathy towards this sincere, good man and his unrealized hopes.

Ized hopes."

Continuing, the Novoe Vremya remarks that Sviatopolk-Mirsky did not possess the self-confidence necessary to insist upon the program which had the sympathy of the Russian people.

The two young men were fishing from a small boat, and had been using dynamite to kill the fish. Stanton was holding a stick of dynamite with a lighted fuse in his hand, preparing to throw it in to the river, when Haynie made a remark to him, and, forgetting the dynamite in his hand, Stanton turned his head to speak to his companion. At this instant the explosion occurred.

Stanton was instantly killed, his body being horribly mutilated.

IMPROVED POSTAL SERVICE FOR SOUTH

Bill Before Congress Authorizing Increased Facilities.

LETTER CARRIERS ARE REMOVED

Heated Discussion of Senate Committee on Foreign Relations in Regard to European Treaties, the Southern Senators Agreed to the Amendment.

Washington, Feb. 3.—When the house met today the pending proposition was the paragraph in the postoffice appropriation bill authorizing appropriations for special mail facilities on trunk lines from Washington to Atlanta and New Orleans and from Kansas City, Mo., to Newton, Kan.

Through an objection by Mr. Esch (Wis.) unanimous consent was refused Mr. Williams (Miss.), the minority leader, to withdraw the minority report on the bill to regulate freight rates as well as to amend the b presented by the minority in connection therewith so as to declare private car lines and refrigerator lines common carriers, subject to the provisions of the interstate commerce act.

In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 3.—After a discussion of more than an hour the senate committee on foreign relations today adjourned without reporting the arbitration treaties between the United States and several European governments, with prospects for an early agreement. Senator Bacon again urged the adoption of amendments that were made by the senate to the Olney-Pauncefote treaty, in order to guard the interests of the United States, but these were opposed by the Republican members of the committee. It is understood the committee will finally agree to an amendment requiring that every claim to be arbitrated under the treaties must first be submitted to the senate. Senators from southern states who have opposed the treaties because of the effect they might possibly have on the repudiated state bonds held abroad have agreed to accept an amendment of this character.

Removes Letter Carriers.

Postmaster General Wynne today removed three letter carriers this morning in the Toledo, O., postoffice, ordered a fourth man to show cause why he should not be removed, and suspended thirty other carriers, all of the Toledo office force, for 30 days on the charge of selling mining stock and of collecting the assessments thereon. It also is alleged that in some cases the men made false statements under oath in denying the charges.

One hundred and seventeen counties are yet to be heard from, and in the 655 counties which have so far reported, ginners to the number of 447 have refused to make statements.

It was hinted here that evidences of false returns having been made by some ginners had been discovered, but the officials of the census bureau say that this was not the case.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life forces. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eighteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

WALK MORE.

The Americans as a rule are not addicted to much walking, says W. Alford Green in Outing for February. The reason may be found in the fact that transportation facilities, by means of steam, elevated and surface railroads, are so plentiful, that the temptation to ride cannot be resisted. There is the additional reason that the American citizen must perforce do everything in a hurry, and, in keeping with this idea, the business man rides to and from his employment—where in many cases he might walk with benefit to himself in every way—on the same principle that he takes his luncheon at the rush counter. The feverish haste in eating meals, coupled with the disinclination to take even moderate walking exercise, is undoubtedly the cause of the dyspepsia which generally afflicts the American people, and which produces the pasty complexion seen almost universally in the youth of today. How unfavorably these complexions compare with the rosy cheeks of the young men and women of England, who have yet to learn the dire results of rapid-fire eating, and who have not yet given up the walking habit!

Florida is the State where walking is more beneficial to those who come here for health than many suppose, and those who have taken the pains to inquire into the matter have learned that those who come here in feeble health and are unable to walk but a short distance at first, by degrees become strong enough to go on foot and with but little fatigue, many times as far as when they first attempted the walking exercise.

There is no better way to gain strength than by walking—increasing the distance a little at a time, and the exercise is practiced with good results by many who come to Gainesville to recuperate their health.

OUTING FOR FEBRUARY.

Alive with the spirit of winter comes February Outing with its splendid illustrations of winter pastimes—tobogganing, sledding, skating, hocky, and the rearing ice-boat. Speed—breathless speed seems to be the keynote of these winter recreations. Robert Dunn contributes a romance of the far North where cold and hardships cannot chill the ador of a woman's love; and "When the North Calls," by W. B. Ashley, brings back to us strongly the joyous days when we were boys exploring winter's wonderlands. But not all the articles are tinged with frost. Of a personal nature are the accounts of men and women of the outdoor world in which are sketches of such men as A. J. Cassett, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad; Miss Marion Holland, a heroine of the tan-bark ring; Governor Napoleon Broward of Florida, Mrs. Henry G. Trevor, John W. Bourdette, etc. The illustrations are all in keeping with the usual excellent quality of the work found in this magazine each month.

One of the main problems that will confront the Panama Canal Commission when arrangements have been completed for beginning work will be the scarcity of common laborers. It will take thousands of men to do this work and the choice is between the Italian and negro.

AFTER THE FREEZE.

The effect of the recent cold snap in Alachua county, from careful investigation, shows no serious damage, and with the mercury at 18 degrees on Wednesday, the coldest night, Mr. J. R. Zetrouer had no fire in his grove, and he sends The Sun the following, which will be of interest to all our readers:

"ROCHELLE, FLA., Feb. 2, 1905.

"Editor Sun: I send you by Mrs. Hill three fruit and four sprigs—two sprigs of the second to last and two of the last growth, on my grape fruit trees, which I have just taken from the tree today. You will readily see that the fruit is more or less damaged, but my trees are all right, there being a few of the smallest trees a little damaged in the top. In about four acres of bearing grove the damage done by the late freeze will not amount to anything, and unless we are smote on the other cheek, we will be all right for a crop of fruit for this year.

"I have been in the orange business for about thirty years, and while I do not claim to be an expert or a 'know-all,' I will add that the damage to fruit standing on the trees during a freeze is in proportion to the size of the grove, tree and the amount of sap in the tree. For instance, fruit on a large tree will stand one and a half to two degrees more cold than one on a small tree; and fruit on a tree with a low sap will stand three degrees more cold without being damaged than with a full sap. Fruit will not be injured to any extent at 28 degrees with full sap and 26 with low sap in the tree, and grape fruit will stand two degrees more cold than the orange—that is, the fruit.

"Of the fruit I send you, one was resting on the ground, the other two being about 15 inches above ground. I shipped a carload on Tuesday, January 31st, which was housed before the cold. Yours very truly,

"J. R. ZETROUER."

The fruit we received through the courtesy of Mrs. Hill was of large size, and one was said to be almost white when picked, but had again assumed a better color. One was a healthy yellow and a beautiful specimen. The sprigs from the trees were in a very healthy condition, and if there had been any damage to the leaves it was very apparent.

From all we can learn it is safe to say that fruit trees in Alachua county are not injured to any great amount by the freeze.

Through the compliments of Hon. B. E. McLin, commissioner of agriculture for the State of Florida, The Sun is in receipt of an exhaustive document descriptive of the history, topography, climate, soil and resources of this State, prepared in the interest of immigration. It is illustrated with numerous half-tone cuts of the public buildings of Florida, as well as growing crops. The figures are authoritative, and the only drawback is that it will not get the circulation it deserves.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Senor Quesada, Cuban minister to the United States, says that the reason the English and German manufacturers are getting the trade of the island was because they manufacture goods for the Cuban trade. Besides, they have men who are able to speak the prevailing language to sell the goods. Possibly there may be some good grounds for their discrimination between the nations they patronize.

THE CATALPA TREE.

It would seem that there is no end to the vast possibilites in the way of resources of Florida, and these resources are daily being developed. We look back for only a few years and find that the vast pine forests of the State were but a source of expense to the owner, and many of the owners, from the expenses and taxation of these lands, had been forced to abandon them. But conditions are now radically reversed; now every available body of such lands either have been or are being absorbed and detimbered, and there is no shutting out the fact that in but a few years we will have but little pine timber left. When this time arrives where will the fence posts, the cross-ties, etc., come from? Our answer to this proposition is that in the propagation and cultivation of the catalpa tree we have the solution. It is a well known fact that the catalpa in the hammock lands in this section grows to perfection, and that for fence posts, cross-ties, etc., there is no better timber in the world, as it practically lasts indefinitely, and, it is said, never rots. This tree can easily be propagated from the cuttings and every owner of land should plant at least enough to supply himself with fence posts. This industry, from the necessities of the case, will prove to be profitable beyond expectations, and to prove the extent of the profit, we will, as an illustration, take one acre and from this show how the profit comes. These trees from the cutting can be planted 4x4 feet, which gives, say 2,700 plants per acre. At the end of four years we have 2,700 trees which will average at least five fence posts to each tree, which will be worth here not less than ten cents each, which renders the gross returns from one acre of $1,350. Now what can be more profitable than this proposition, and for cross-ties the proposition is even more enticing, as the price is much greater. This tree does its own growing and needs but little cultivation, and therein lies the possibilities of the profit. Let someone of our many prosperous farmers or land owners fully demonstrate this proposition. There is no limit to it and he who first embraces the opportunity will surely win out.

The Florida cane growers were well represented at the convention held in Montgomery, Ala., and Hon. R. E. Rose, State Chemist, was elected vice-president. The necessity of central factories for the manufacture of a uniform grade of syrup was discussed at length.

Buildings are being erected in every part of the city, and there are few idle men about town. New people are locating here nearly every day, and the subscription list of The Sun is increasing. If you want to reach the people advertise in The Sun.

MEDICAL EXAMINER

Of the United States Treasury Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Prominent Physicians Endorse Pe-ru-na.

DR. LLEWELLYN JORDAN, Medical Examiner of the U. S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peruna:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering.

"Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."—Llewellyn Jordan.

Doctors have been loathe to endorse a catarrh remedy because catarrh and catarrhal diseases have puzzled the medical fraternity for many decades.

The popular endorsements that Peruna has received at the hands of the people have induced a great many doctors to try the remedy.

More prominent physicians use and endorse Peruna each year.

Dr. A. Morgan, 214 Gater street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"Regular physicians do not, as a rule, endorse patent medicines. I have, however, found in my practice that Peruna is a notable exception and not at all like any other medicine generally sold as 'patent medicine.'

"In examining it I find that it is a scientifically prepared medicine, composed of herbal remedies of high medicinal value.

"It is a specific for catarrh of the head, lungs or stomach, a fine remedy for female troubles, and invaluable to mothers and children.

"After fevers or other protracted illness, it is one of the best tonics I know of to restore the system to normal condition and I recommend it to convalescents.

"It is a high class family remedy, good for young and old."—A. Morgan.

Peruna occupies a unique position in medical science. It is the only internal systemic catarrh remedy known to the medical profession to-day.

Robert R. Roberts, M. D., Washington, D. C., writes:

"Through my own experience as well as that of many of my friends and acquaintances who have been cured or relieved of catarrh by the use of Hartman's Peruna, I can confidently recommend it to those suffering from such disorders, and have no hesitation in prescribing it to my patients."—Robert R. Roberts.

DR. LLEWELLYN JORDAN, Medical Examiner United States Treasury.

Catarrh is a systemic disease curable only by systemic treatment. A remedy that cures catarrh must aim directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does.

Peruna immediately invigorates the nerve centers which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then catarrh disappears. Then catarah is permanently cured.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.

ETTUCE MOVEMENT WAS VERY HEAVY

Seven to Eight Carloads Will Comprise Week's Shipment.

NOW BRINGING FINE PRICES

The Product in the Markets of the East is Averaging $2.50 Per Basket, and Growers Who Were Safe are Reaping Great Benefit.

Notwithstanding that reports show the recent cold weather to have been disastrous to the lettuce crop, the Gainesville section continues to ship this excellent product in carload lots, and before the end of the week, which will be tonight, at least seven solid carloads will have moved to the markets of the East.

By the Gainesville section it is intended to include every farm within five miles of the district. While the growers have been considerably damaged, there is yet a large acreage in lettuce which is being marketed, and the price is good, ranging from $2 to $3 per basket, meaning a fair average of $2.50.

The Armour Car Line is handling the product nicely. The lettuce reaches New York in good condition, and is said to be as good as ever left the State.

J. P. Kennedy, representative of the Armour Lines in this section, states that Friday night one car from Gainesville and one car from Rocky Point were moved, consigned to the New York markets. These cars were made up from the various growers of the section, and contained three hundred and fifty baskets each. It is expected that another car, possibly two, may go forward today, which will make from seven to eight cars for the present week.

The cabbage crop having been only recently set, it is believed that the damage was only slight, probably twenty per cent. It was fortunate, if it should come at all, that the cold snap arrived at this time, as there were very few vegetables planted, and the growers will not sustain such a serious loss.

Reports from Evinston, McIntosh, Reddick and other points in that section indicate that, while a great deal of headed lettuce was frozen, the vegetable crop as a rule is safe. Young lettuce and protected lettuce was not injured to any extent.

Reports show that there were nineteen cars of Florida lettuce unloaded on the New York market Monday, but despite this the prices held up.

WILL OPEN NORMAL.

East Florida Seminary Will Add New Feature on March 13th.

As is usual each year, the East Florida Seminary will begin on Marth 13th a normal department, at which those desiring to take a teacher's examination may become familiar with the studies to which they will be subjected.

The normal department of this institution was conducted last year with great success, many having taken advantage of the opportunity to attend the session. The class is intended especially for teachers, and special studies will be inaugurated, but those who attend may have the privilege of the regular collegiate course of the institution if they so desire.

Prof. Jere M. Pound, superintendent of the institution, stated yesterday in conversation with The Sun reporter, that it was his desire to make the coming term an especially favorable and successful one, and that he desired to inform those who desired to attend in plenty time. The school will prove of great benefit to those who desire to study a normal course, besides giving them the advantage of a collegiate course if they desire. The studies will be under direct supervision of Superintendent Pound, with his able corps of assistants, and it goes without saying that no better opportunity will be offered anywhere in the State.

For those desiring to enter a small fee will be charged, to cover the expense of the session. The term will begin March 13th, and will continue ten weeks. An entrance fee of $5 will be required, and board may be secured at the barracks for $10 per month. Those desiring to secure accommodations outside the barracks may do so at a little advanced price.

All persons interested may address Prof. Jere M. Pound, superintendent East Florida Seminary, for further particulars.

DOG SAVED HER LIFE.

Handsome Little May Park Saved by Great Dane Canine.

C. W. Park, proprietor of the Park Theatre Company, is a man with a heart as big as his body. Mr. Park carries regularly with his show his family, all of whom are stars in the theatrical profession, and a couple of excellent, pedigreed Danish dogs, which himself and family prize very highly.

There is a reason for prizing one of these animals, which at one critical moment saved the life of little Miss May, now a handsome Miss of about fifteen.

This happened in Pittsburg, Pa., eight years ago. Miss May was at that time a little tot. She was playing in front of her home on one of the principal streets of that city, when she came near being run down by a street car. The little girl was playing with her canine companion in the center of the street. A car approached rapidly, and for a few seconds it seemed that death for Little Miss May was eminent. Suddenly, with a determination humane, the dog seemed to realize the danger, and snatched the little girl by the frock, pulling her off just in time to save her life.

As a result of this exciting incident "Major," as he is known, is a cripple for life, losing a foot in the act, the street car wheel having passed over and severed a leg.

This is why Mr. Park feels so tenderly towards "Major," and he stated to a grupp of gentleman friends Friday that all the money in the world could not buy him, because he had saved the treasure of his life.

BAKING POWDER

A Deserved Compliment.

In referring to Prof. M. C. McIntosh, chief clerk of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Holloway, an exchange pays him a high compliment, but a deserving one. Prof. McIntosh is from Alachua county, and has been for several years engaged in the profession of teaching here, Archer being his last school. The exchange says:

"Superintendent Holloway is ably assisted by Mr. M. C. McIntosh of Alachua county as chief clerk. Mr. McIntosh is eminently qualified for this important position. He is a graduate of Emory College, Georgia, and has filled satisfactorily many responsible positions."

Mr. McIntosh's qualifications for the position he has been honored with are such as to commend him to the educational interests of the State. He has for several years been connected with the leading educational institutions of Alachua county, and his record as a teacher—one who is enthusiastic and thorough in his work—is an excellent one. Those who know him are confident that Mr. Holloway will find in Mr. McIntosh a valuable assistant.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness, and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. WOMEN ATTEND THE SESSIONS

Instructions in Fishburn Case Are Argued by Counsel.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 3.—The instructions in the Fishburn murder trial, argued by counsel Wednesday, were revised and read to the jury by Judge Aiken. The instructions are pronounced the most voluminous ever known in a trial in this state, and under them the defendant cannot either be set free or given the extreme penalty.

Everett Perkins, commonwealth's attorney, was the first speaker, and his argument occupied three hours. He was followed by E. W. Robertson for the defense and had not finished when court adjourned.

Women in large numbers continue to attend the sessions and many of them take their lunch and do not leave the building during the day.

Dying Man Diagnosed His Case.

Boston, Ftb. 3.—Dr. R. W. Read, a graduate of Edinburgh university and of the University of Pennsylvania, is dead here at the age of 70 years. He was found sitting in a chair beside a table upon which lay a note showing that he had diagnosed his own case as the attack came on. It read as follows: "Nothing suspicious. I died of rheumatism of the heart. My effects go to my wife, Annie Read, of Hickory, N. C. The pain is terrible. The rheumatism has reached the vital organs."

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable. I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ringworm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1 bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

INDICT HOCH FOR MURDER.

Man Who Married at Least Twenty Women in Cluches of Law.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Indictment for murder will be asked by Coroner Hoffman against Johann Hoch, the alleged husband of many wives.

"I am now in a position to state that the embalming fluid injected into the body of Mrs. Marie Welker Hoch, did not contain arsenic," said the coroner today. "Arsenic was not a constituent of any of the drugs administered by the physician who attended the woman before he r death. The fact that more than 2½ ounces of poison were found in the organs means the man murdered his wife. The coroner's jury will doubtless hold Hoch to the grand jury, but if it fails to do so, I will hold him under my official perrogative."

The inquest will not be held until Hoch reaches here some time next week. Two of the wives of Hoch have quarreled over money alleged to have been found on Hoch when arrested. The money is claimed by Mrs. Fisher Hoch, because she was the last one he deserted. Mrs. Hendricks Schmitt Hoch also lays claim to $500 on the $600 now said to be in possession of the New York police, as she gave up that amount when Hoch bid her adieu.

Both women threaten to attach the money.

BANK CASHIER INDICTED.

Former Tennesseean Held Under $10,000 Bail by Federal Court.

New York, Feb. 3.—James S. O'Neale, formerly cashier of the Equitable National bank, of this city, which was closed a year ago by the comptroller of the currency after an existence of twenty months, has been arraigned before United States Commissioner Rowe, in Jersey City, and held in $10,000 bail on an indictment found by the federal grand jury in New York, was furnished.

On evidence presented by the comptroller for currency an indictment was found against O'Neale Jan. 17. He was charged with falsifying his reports to the treasury department and the books of the bank.

Friends of O'Neale, who has for years been cashier of the Chattanooga National bank, of Chattanooga, Tenn., say he was imposed upon by others in the transactions and assert that the charges against him are only technical.

A Living Monument.

If we were to assemble all those who have been cured of heart disease by Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and who would to-day be in their graves had not Dr. Miles' been successful in perfecting this wonderful heart specific, they would populate a large city.

What a remarkable record—a breathing, thinking, moving monument, composed of human lives,—that for which every other earthly possession is sacrificed.

The Miles Medical Co. receive thousands of letters from these people like the following:

"I feel indebted to the Dr. Miles' Heart Cure for my life. I desire to call the attention of others suffering as I did to this remarkable remedy for the heart. For a long time I had suffered from shortness of breath after any little exertion, palpitation of the heart; and at times terrible pain in the region of the heart, so serious that I feared that I would some time drop dead upon the street. One day I read one of your circulars, and immediately went to my druggist and purchased two bottles of the Heart Cure, and took it according to directions, with the result that I am entirely cured. Since then I never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy to my friends who have heart trouble; in fact I am a traveling advertisement, for I am widely known in this locality."

J. R. BOWMAN,
Manager of Lebanon Democrat, Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Rebekah Supper.

The supper given by the Daughters of Rebekah at the opera house Friday night was well patronized, despite the inclement weather, and the Daughters express themselves as being well pleased. The menu consisted of all kinds of good things to eat at reasonable prices, and they were served in a manner most tempting.

The proceeds of this supper will be used in defraying the expense of the representatives of the Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., upon their visit to Gainesville during the session of the Grand Lodge, which will convene in April.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

Buster Green Charged With Throwing Rocks at Theatre Tent.

Buster Green, who is somewhat different in character and style to Buster Brown, was arraigned in the mayor's court Friday morning upon a charge of throwing rocks at the tent of the Park Theatre Company.

During the performance Thursday evening inmates of the tent were startled, and the ladies excited, at the downpour of brickbats upon the roof of the tent. Officers Pinkoson and Warren were notified and immediately made investigation of the matter. They discovered a crowd of colored boys on the outside, the majority of whom declared that Buster Brown was the leader of the "gang," and had thrown the bricks.

"I didn't flunk dat brick," remarked Buster, in a sympathetic tone, to the mayor, when he was placed before the municipal judge. "I was standin' dere lookin' at de fun, w'en de marshal dun cum out an' grab me."

There was no evidence that Buster "flung de brick," but he was caught in bad company, and there was no evidence that he did not "fling" it, hence the mayor, with his big heart, let him down easy with the costs.

The Tent Show.

The Park Theatre Company appeared in a good role, that of "The Old Homestead," to a large audience last night, and the company retained its excellent reputation. Every part was well assumed, and altogether the performance was one to be commended.

The company has appeared here for a week, and the best recommendation is the fact that not an objection can be heard. They will conclude their engagement for the week this evening, but it is hoped by lovers of refined theatrical work that they will not leave Gainesville out of their future itinerary. It may be said that they have enjoyed better audiences and given better satisfaction than any theatrical organization visiting this city in recent years. Aside from this, the members of the company are refined gentlemen and ladies, and have made many friends socially here.

Glovosky is Dead.

There was a sad death a day or two ago at the Brown House menagerie, when Glovosky, one of the fine foxes, decided to quit this world. His companions assembled about the prostrate form, and in their animal way displayed much sorrow at the sudden departure of their comrade and friend, whom it is said succumbed to an overdose of raw meat.

But the animals were not the only ones in mourning. Manager Joe Ettel and Clerk Hertle assembled about the cage, and from their expressions it was plainly discernible that they were in trouble, too.

Of the three foxes in the menagerie Glovosky was the favorite, possibly because he displayed more intelligence. He was a general favorite, and had been taught to perform several unique tricks, among which were standing on his head, turning a backward somersault, walking on his forefeet, etc.

Glovosky was given a decent and proper burial in the Brown House yard, within a few feet of his earthly abode, and within close proximity to the fountain, where, if he dreams, he may dream of the pure, gurgling waters where the alligators rest.

Glovosky was one of the very few pedigreed foxes. He is of high parentage, and came to the menagerie as an animal of exceptionally high breed. He has always been a favorite among those animals with whom he was associated, being of a most sunny nature.
